The Unopened Envelope

A small taste of Cipher & Supper

A dinner guest has left an envelope marked with a two-digit lock. Two small clues reveal its code. Solve them in order. Suggested play time: 3-5 minutes; this is a design estimate.

1 / A note at the door

Look around before you begin.
Every guest has left a sign.
Follow the first thing you see.
Tonight, choose a direction.

First letters give a direction. LEFT = 6. RIGHT = 2. UP = 8. DOWN = 5.

2 / The place cards

Three guests sit in one row. Cora sits immediately to the right of Ben. Ada sits to the left of Ben. Which guest is in the middle?
Ada = 3. Ben = 4. Cora = 7.

Our two-digit code: [ ] [ ]

THE ANSWER

An invitation, not a warning

Clue 1: The first letters spell LEFT, giving 6.
Clue 2: The only order is Ada, Ben, Cora. Ben sits in the middle, giving 4.
The code is 64.

Inside the envelope is a small card: “You noticed the details. There is a place for you at our next table.”
